

Emergency checklist: creating a good communication plan for persons with disabilities

Build a personal support team and discuss your communication needs

Create a personal information checklist with information on your medical conditions and emergency numbers

Subscribe to communication alerts

Identify and prepare your communication assistive devices

Stay connected when travelling

For more information on these key aspects, check our Accessible communication during COVID-19 and other emergencies: A guideline for persons with disabilities.