Personal information collection statement

We collect your name, postal code and contact information for two reasons:

- 1) To understand how the draft standard may need to be changed to better meet the needs of people in different parts of Canada.
- 2) In some cases, we will use this information to contact you to learn more about your suggestion. This will only happen if you agree to let us contact you.

The authority to collect information contained on this form for the purposes described above is provided under the authority of the Accessible Canada Act. Your personal information will be managed in accordance with the Privacy Act. The Privacy Act and other laws protect your personal information. You have the right to access and correct this information.

Your right to privacy and control of your information

We follow rules about the information we can collect from you and save. The personal information that can be collected is described in the "Outreach Activities PSU 938" Personal Information Bank.

You can find instructions on how to learn about personal information saved about you at: Treasury Board of Canada "Information about programs and information holdings".

The personal information that you provide is protected under Canada's Privacy Act. Under the Privacy Act, you have the right to access your personal information and request changes to information that is incorrect.

You have the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the institutions' handling of your personal information at: Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada.
